Life at CKT

At CKT, we are deeply committed to nurturing the next generation of legal professionals.

Our trainee programme is designed to provide a rich and varied learning experience, offering exposure to a wide array of legal practice areas.

Trainees work alongside some of Ireland's leading legal professionals in a welcoming and supportive environment.

CSR

Our CSR Committee leads the way to promote education and opportunities for the team to develop personally and professionally, always striving to do better. The CKT team drives meaningful change by using their skills, connections, and passion to make a lasting positive impact on our communities through volunteering, pro-bono work and fundraising activities. We see this as our opportunity to use our knowledge and expertise to assist those that need our help most.

CKT Social Life

Beyond the office, there's a vibrant social life, offering plenty of opportunities for team bonding and fun. Trainees can take part in fun social activities such as our Tag Rugby Team, join our Book Club, or enjoy our monthly "Pizza and Pints" night. These events promote unity and wellbeing ensuring that work at CKT is balanced by a strong sense of community.

Diversity Equality & Inclusion

As a signatory to the Law Society of Ireland's Gender Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Charter, we are committed to treating all individuals and groups fairly and equitably, regardless of gender, civil status, family status, sexual orientation, religion, age, race, class, disability, or culture background.
